FIRE ON FRONT ROW.

HALF A SQUARE BURNED.

LOSS OVER $100,000.

SEVEN LIVES LOST.

At half past three o'clock, yesterday morning, the fire broke out in the front row of the Exchange Building, on the corner of Front and Adams streets. The fire was caused by a gas lamp which had been left burning in the room.

The fire spread rapidly, and in a few minutes had reached the roof of the building. The firemen were unable to reach the fire, and the building was completely destroyed.

The loss is estimated at over $100,000. Seven lives were lost in the fire. The fire was caused by a gas lamp which had been left burning in the room.
